Calabria

1. Thank you very much for your suggestion in MGKA-19809. It had occurred to me also that he might not find this work clean enough. Everything in this connection will depend on the type of personality his present girl friend and future wife is. She cannot be kept out of the operation, according to what I have heard to date, and she seems to be a fast-hitting, rabble-rousing individualist. She is an anti-Nazi, but maybe she could hide under the good Nazi past of her fiancé.

2. The most important thing for the time being is to find Calabria some type of employment so he can earn his living and stop sponging on his girl friend. I have discussed Calabria with Dave Parsons of ACA and told him that I thought here was a wonderful publicity stunt for him - to employ a former war criminal who had atoned for his sins by sitting in jail for five years. Dave Parsons thought the idea wonderful and is willing to brave publicity - or in other words, would welcome publicity - and is at present looking into a way of employing Calabria. Since Dave Parsons is looking for a salesman in North Rhine-Westphalia who should have Calabria's qualifications, we might be able to project him into a very interesting professional and political entourage.

3. Dave Parsons has done favors for us in the past, can be counted on to keep his mouth shut on our connection, and I think is rather intrigued by meeting a real live war criminal.
